

Communication Studies Financial Aid Application

Application Directions

In our efforts to recognize and reward exemplary Communication Studies students, we are offering financial awards for the upcoming academic year. We invite students who fulfill the below criteria to apply:

- Have completed by the end of the Spring 2025 semester the following courses: CN101, CN150 and six (6) additional credit hours of Communication courses
- Intend to enroll full-time or part-time during the 2025-2026 academic year.
*Please indicate if you intend to graduate in Fall 2025.
- Have declared Communication Studies as your Major or Minor (Priority is given to Majors)

To apply, please complete and submit the following:

- A completed application form
- A response that is typed, double-spaced, and no longer than 500 words answering the following prompt:

How will your studies in the field of Communication Studies prepare you for your chosen career?

Additionally, our department offers fellowships that take into consideration financial need. For consideration of a fellowship, you may include a statement of how the fund from this award might support you. (No more than 200 words beyond the response above.)

All materials should be submitted to Tracy Routsong at tracy.routsong@washburn.edu

no earlier than February 10, 2025

and no later than

5:00 pm, March 7th, 2025.
