Sociology & Anthropology

Bachelor of Science, Anthropology, Forensic Concentration

Successor of selection, finding pology, 10
1ST YEAR
 Major: AN112 and AN116 Minor: CH103 WU101, EN101, and MA116 4 100-level Gen Ed classes
 Join Forensic Sciences Club and/or SOAN Club and attend their events Visit departmental tutors and meet professors during office hours Vist SOAN sip-n-chat Follow SOAN + WUFA RU social media Visit AAFS & ABFA student FAQ sites
 Meet with advisor to discuss career goals Attend WU Majors Fair Explore the WU Career Services

2ND YEAR

• Tour KBI

autopsy

courses

munity

ment.

ences needed

3RD YEAR

4TH OR FINAL YEAR

• Major: AN428, and

2 upper-division AN

• Minor: CH151, 4cr.

• Lower and/or upper-

division electives

upper division BI elective

electives

- Major: AN112 and AN116
- Minor: CH103

- WU101, EN101, and MA116
- 4 100-level Gen Ed classes

• Visit careers in forensic

anthropology information

sites

- Major: AN113 and AN316
- Minor: BI102, BI103, MA140
- •100-level Ged Ed classes and/or electives

• Visit a morgue to view

• Make friends with peers

in your major and major

• Get active in your com-

• Maintain active connection with SOAN Depart-

• Review job ads to determine skill-set and experi-

• Explore career options at

AAFS website and others

- Major: AN324, AN327, AN374, AN358, and upper-division AN electives
- Minor: BI 275 & 4 credit BI elective
- EN300
- Ged Ed classes and/or electives

Summer:

• Major: AN375 or AN363

• Perform case work with WU-FARU

- Complete an internship
- Present research or class
- Join networking group related to your post-

• Attend a professional conference (UGRD, Apeiron)

- Consider completing a WTE
- Sign up for summer fieldwork, an internship, or study abroad
- Apply to volunteer with WU-FARU on casework
- Join a professional network like AAFS

• Talk to mentors who could serve as strong references

- Research graduate programs or identify career areas of interest
- Create a curriculum vitae and/or resume
- Take GRE and/or MCAT exams (summer after year 3)

WHERE COULD I GO AFTER GRADUATION?

• Job opportunities:

in medico-legal field, federal, state, local gov't, international organizations, public and private forensic laboratories, medical examiner's and coroner's offices, crime scene recovery teams, hospitals, police departments, human rights teams

- Internships and gap year programs
- Advanced education: in Anthropology, medical school, mortuary school, physician's assistant programs

Practicing forensic anthropologists have earned a PhD in biological anthropology or related field and achieved ABFA board certification

- project at a conference or Apeiron
- graduate profession

programs and/or jobs • Complete SOAN exit survey with updated contact info.

• Apply for graduate

VISIT www.washburn.edu FOR MORE INFORMATION