Washburn University
General Faculty Minutes
March 9, 2022

I. CALL TO ORDER

Dr. Farley called the meeting to order at 3:30 via Zoom.

II. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

A motion was made (Barker) and seconded (Morse) to approve the minutes of the February 10, 2022 General Faculty Meeting. The minutes were approved.

III. REMARKS

From the President

- Tax changes are on our side. There is still a potential for a salary program, to include a five percent raise. It may still be difficult to complete the program, but with the 1.5 million added to the budget for a total of 14 million dollars, it is hopeful.
- KBOR provided funding for campus maintenance. Next academic year will be the first of the three to six years it will take to distribute for several projects.

From the Vice President for Academic Affairs

- Graduating approximately 800 students this year; this is the biggest that we have had in a long time.
- KBOR is still discussing a general education package. There is not yet a formal policy; this is still going through committee. Not likely to be completed this semester.
- Grateful for the kind words regarding the difficult decision to take a new position elsewhere. Mazachek trusts she is leaving things in the best hands.
- We will not be doing any slowing down this semester as she leaves the position.

IV. NEW BUSINESS

22-5 Proposal to change university mathematics general education requirement

- The university core mathematics course will no longer show MA112 or MA116 and instead will show MA112. This will make the process more streamlined. Higher level MA courses will still populate in place of the core requirements if student does not take MA112.
 - Currently an ACT score of 28 has met the MA core university requirements; an ACT of 22 is the required prerequisite for MA112 and MA116. If a student earns 19 or 20, they are unable to enroll in MA116.

- Wohl: suggested reducing the score to meet the MA core requirements to 22 from 28. Details regarding general education and core requirements will need to be changed in the catalog, as the core is not part of general education, and therefore MA116 is not in the system as such.
- Ball: currently MA116 counts for a general education course in Natural Sciences when the student has also taken MA112. The current system requires the auditors to make this adjustment and is being changed in the system. In agreement that there are program changes needed other than language, but not in this setting. This will require another proposal.
- Byrne: concerned that the move from 28 to 22 may end with a proposal in the future to change it back; there are some programs do require MA116
 - Wagner: courses with MA prerequisites already have this included in navigate.
- Cook provided documentation of proposed language changes not included in the materials distributed for the meeting.
 - The language changes were approved.
- The motion to change university MA requirements carried.

V. ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Thanks to Dr. Mazachek from the campus community (Morse); she has been a champion for equity, transparency, and shared governance.

VI. ADJOURNMENT

- The meeting was adjourned at 4:15 pm.

Program Modification Narrative

This program modification request is focused on revisions to the required correlate courses, taken outside of the social work department, for the BSW (Bachelor of Social Work) Program.

Current Required Correlate Courses

Course in human biology
AN112 Cultural Anthropology
Psychology course
SO101 Social Problems

Proposed Required Correlate Courses

AN112 Cultural Anthropology
Psychology course
EN208 Professional Writing-Helping Professions
HS131 Human Development

Differences between current and proposed curriculum and Rationale for Proposed Changes

After very careful consideration, we are seeking to eliminate a course in human biology and SO101 as required correlate courses, and instead add EN208 and HS131. Importantly, this will not change the fact that students will still need natural sciences and social sciences general education credits.

The BSW degree prepares students for professional practice, and the curriculum is informed by detailed accreditation standards. Included in these standards, is a set of nine competencies (similar to PSLOs) that our curriculum must prepare students to achieve. These proposed changes will support our students in achieving the competencies required by our accreditation, as well as prepare them for professional writing that they will encounter in their workplace, and increase their readiness for passing their licensing exam after graduation.

Our department completed an in-depth curriculum mapping and review process, and as part of this, we reviewed our required correlate courses. This included reviewing the syllabi of the correlate courses that we currently require, and making comparisons to our accreditation standards, assessment data, and required social work courses in our program. We then also identified gaps in our curriculum based on this same data, and identified and assessed WU courses that would support our students in those areas.

Our course content has undergone significant changes over the last several years, and as a result SO101 is now duplicative of content that students already receive in our program. We also identified that HS131 better prepares our students to achieve the core competencies of our program, and to pass their licensing examination, compared to a course in human biology. Finally, as part of our curriculum mapping and review process, we identified that our students needed more content related to professional writing. We have been suggesting that students take EN208 to fulfill a humanities gen ed for the last couple of years, and have spoken with another department regarding their experiencing requiring EN208 as a correlate. After this review, and given that SO101 is being eliminated, we would like to add EN208 as a required correlate to ensure that all students are receiving this necessary content.

Impact of changes on faculty/adjunct resources

These changes will impact departments outside of social work. Importantly, we recognize that that the biology and sociology departments will be affected by removing courses from their departments as required correlates. Students will still be required to take natural sciences and social sciences courses to fulfill their general education requirements, and social work advisors will continue to suggest biology and sociology courses to fill these requirements.

We also recognize that these changes have implications for the English and family and human services departments. Both departments have provided support for these proposed changes, and have stated that they will be able to accommodate the additional students. Email communications regarding their support are attached.

Budget Implications

This request has no budget implications for the social work department. The effects on other departments are discussed above.

FACULTY AGENDA ITEM 22-15

Date: 3/22/22

Submitted by: Jennifer Ball, x1840

SUBJECT: Proposed change in transfer policy regarding technical institutions of higher education

Description: From the section "Transfer Students" in the Washburn University Undergraduate Academic Catalog, 2021-22

For transfer students who have not completed a baccalaureate degree, courses completed at a college, university, or technical institution accredited by one of the seven regional accrediting organizations which have been designated by the sending institution as general education courses will transfer to Washburn University as courses within the appropriate general education distribution area without further review. In addition, courses listed by the Kansas Board of Regents as a Kansas System-Wide Transfer (KSWT) course at www.kansasregents.org/transfer_articulation will transfer as their listed Washburn University equivalent course without further review. Note: The policy is not intended to circumvent specific general education requirements for particular majors. This is a most important distinction and should be noted by students and their advisors.

Deleted: or

Exceptions to this transfer policy include the following.

1. The core requirements in English, Mathematics, and College Experience not addressed by KSWT must be approved as equivalent courses by the relevant departments unless the student has completed a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution.
2. KSWT courses that are lower-division at the sending institution and upper-division at Washburn University will be considered equivalent to the course at Washburn University for the purposes of program requirements, but will not count toward the minimum upper-division hours required for graduation.
3. Courses not included in the sending institution's general education program which a transfer student believes may meet the spirit and intent of Washburn University's general education program must be reviewed by the General Education Committee.
4. Courses that may satisfy a major requirement or a prerequisite to a major requirement must be reviewed by the major department chairperson.

Deleted: <#>General education coursework from technical colleges and institutes accredited by one of the six regional accrediting organizations must be reviewed by the General Education Committee. (See next paragraph for more information regarding technical colleges.)¶

Deleted: Transfer students who have completed a technical certificate from 16 to 60 hours approved by the Kansas Board of Regents from a college accredited by the Higher Learning Commission may transfer up to 48 credit hours of earned technical certificate course credit to apply to degrees at Washburn University. Courses completed as a component of an earned Associate's degree beyond the technical program certificate requirements will be evaluated by the appropriate department at Washburn University and, based on that evaluation, may transfer to partially fulfill the core or general education requirements for Washburn programs. Academic units may develop specific policies limiting the number of technical-certificate credit hours which can be applied to a particular degree.

Rationale: The current policy is outdated. Community colleges are offering technical courses/programs and technical schools/colleges/institutes are offering traditional general education courses/programs. The distinction between them, if accredited by one of the seven regional organizations, is now in their names, and the name currently dictates whether we accept their general education courses without further review or subject the student to the petitioning process. It is unclear why the policy ever required the student to complete their technical certificate to transfer their technical credit hours.

Financial Implications: None directly—hopefully this will attract transfer students from technical schools/colleges/institutions

Proposed Effective Date: Immediate upon passage by the Faculty Senate

Request for Action: Approval by Faculty Senate

Approved by: AAC on date
