

WASHBURN UNIVERSITY ON CAMPUS RESOURCES

*Confidential resources are shaded gray and marked with an asterisk

Resources	Services offered	Location & Contact Info
*Washburn Campus Advocate	Free and confidential services, including information on reporting options and victim's rights, safety planning, emotional support, referrals to campus and community resources etc. to all victims of crime	Kuehne Hall suite 200 Phone: 785-670-3100 Email: molly.herman@washburn.edu
*University Counseling Services	Free confidential counseling services to Washburn students	Kuehne Hall suite 200 Phone: 785-670-3100
*Psychological Services Clinic	Individual therapy, group therapy, and psychological testing services (intake fee: $10)	Henderson Room 111 Phone: 785-670-1750
*Student Health Services	Free healthcare services to Washburn students, including free well woman exams	Morgan Hall Room 140 Phone: 785-670-1470
*Washburn Law Clinic	Offer legal counseling, and other legal services to the community	1700 SW College Avenue Phone: 785-670-1191
* Employee Assistance Program	Help Washburn employees manage personal issues	Morgan Hall Room 118 Phone: 785-670-1538
Washburn University Police Department	Respond to reports of crime on campus, and facilitate a safe living and learning campus environment.	Morgan Hall Room 156 Phone: 785-670-1153
Title IX Coordinator	Investigate complaints of discrimination, harassment, and sexual violence (Title IX complaints may be made online or in person)	Morgan Hall Room 200K Phone: 785-670-1509
University Diversity and Inclusion -Disability Services -Veteran's Resources	University Diversity and Inclusion provides leadership and support to the community to address issues, policies, and potential barriers to creating a welcoming working and learning environment. Disability Services assists in arranging accommodations and identifying campus resources for students with disabilities. Veteran's Resources helps veterans and their dependents apply for Veterans Administration educational assistance, and submit enrollment certifications for VA educational benefits while attending Washburn.	Morgan Hall Room 105 Phone: 785-670-1622
Office of Student Life	Oversee the Student Conduct Code; provide and coordinate non-academic options for Washburn students	Morgan Hall Suite 240 Phone: 785-670-2100
Residential Living	Provide a comfortable, secure, safe, and diverse living and learning environment for students	LLC 1801 SW Jewell Ave Phone: 785-670-1065