VI. Public Forum I:

- a. Provost Fritch Forum
 - i. Back to remind us about his role.
 - ii. Have some fun! String symphony plays on Friday. We have some really good sports teams. Go out and support.
 - iii. Lots of construction on campus. The numbers on campus don't really match. He's asking students how/when they could communicate with them.
 - 1. We talk about social media and posts on there as a means of communication.
 - iv. Henderson is being relocated.
 - v. Renaming of Mabee
 - vi. Artificial Intelligence and a program to help people with tech backgrounds.
 - vii. KBOR likes Washburn and are making tech programs easier.
 - viii. Textbooks are being ordered quickly. You also do not need to go to the store to purchase textbooks.
 - ix. What if people get wrongly in trouble for AI? You can take it up with the faculty, and then you can talk to people above.
 - x. He is unsure if it shows you the price.

- viii. Senator Bansal says that the day restrictions are too strict.
 - ix. Time gets extended.
 - x. Alex Timm argues that this was better than what we had devised.
 - xi. Did the committee time the restriction hours around the Topeka Metro? Jullian says that was our biggest decision.
 - xii. Belle urges the need for a much more consistent international ride program. The dollar amount was set once as a one time thing.
 - xiii. Nick repeats his announcement, Topeka Metro is using Metro on Demand, but it didn't sound as if it was the most planned out. Topeka Metro hits grocery centers.
- xiv. Was there anything outside of the metro?
 1. It originally started with Taxi Cabs, but it had failed miserably. So they transitioned to Lyft, and more people use the Metro.
- xv. Ethan Clark reminds us to remember the purpose behind this is to stop the deficit.
- xvi. This had been decided. President Burdick informs us that this "Lyft Bill" had given the authority to the Executive to make the decision. He appreciates the vote.
 1. He argues the Executive has the authority
- xvii. Alex says this is the best of a bad row of choices.
- xviii. Bella informs us that there would be an email out to the student body.
- xix. They try to extend time, but it fails.
